GTC Nutrition Names Anne Birkett, Ph.D. Nutrition Science Manager
Position Brings Additional Expertise to Nutrition Science Department

GOLDEN, Colo. (April 29, 2008) – GTC Nutrition, a business unit of Corn Products International, Inc., recently named Anne Birkett, Ph.D. to the position of Nutrition Science Manager. Dr. Birkett's responsibilities will include communicating the health and nutrition benefits, technical benefits and scientific support of the company's ingredient solutions to internal and external audiences. Dr. Birkett will also identify emerging health trends based on science and provide feedback for growth opportunities for the company.

"Dr. Birkett's rich nutrition and food industry experience complements our internal scientific program and brings fresh perspective to our existing foundation of science," said Coni Francis, Ph.D., R.D., senior manager of science, marketing and technical services. "By expanding our internal scientific expertise, we will be able to advance our nutrition science research to support our growing portfolio of value-added ingredient offerings."

Prior to joining GTC Nutrition, Dr. Birkett held the position of Business Scientist for National Starch and Chemical Company in Bridgewater, New Jersey. In this role, Dr. Birkett's responsibilities included managing the company's external nutrition research program and identifying market trends and opportunities from scientific literature to apply to company products.

Dr. Birkett holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biological and Chemical Sciences and a Doctorate of Philosophy in Nutritional Science from Deakin University in Victoria, Australia.
