

GTC NUTRITION LAUNCHES NEW WEB SITE

GOLDEN, Colorado, Monday, June 13, 2005 – GTC Nutrition, a business unit of Corn Products International, Inc. (NYSE: CPO), today announced the launch of its redesigned web site, fortifeed.com. The site reflects the Company’s ongoing commitment to providing current, comprehensive information about the many benefits of its animal food and feed prebiotic ingredient.

“As the companion and commercial animal industry grows, manufacturers and consumers alike are turning to the Internet to learn about healthier food and feed ingredients, and we are committed to providing our global audience with an online resource that not only details our product offering, but educates our visitors, regardless of their technical background,” said Patrick Smith, president of GTC Nutrition. “By investing in our online marketing efforts, we anticipate continued success in growing industry and consumer confidence in our brand.”

The new web site features content areas focused on the unique health and functional advantages of the product. Additional enhancements include a glossary of terms, which provides concise definitions of scientific and technical terminology, as well as suggested use levels. The site also contains expanded content in areas such as About Us, Contact Us and Press Room.
